BILL WILLIAMS

EXPERIENCE - FREELANCE: Since 1978

I graduated from University in 1978. While there I worked at a local television station, After graduation, I moved to Houston Texas and started to freelance in video production. By the early 80s I was mixing sports for a new company called ESPN. When my first son was born, I started to ease out of spots and started to work as freelance location sound for NBC and ABC. I did this until around 2006 when I also started to mix two studio court shows shot in Houston. I am married with three children.
