

RESUME OF RAUL CASARES
DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY

Dovetailing a twenty-year career as a video cameraman with seven of those years working as a grip electric crew member on hundreds of national commercials, features, and other film projects, Raul is a true director of photography for video.

A direct result of that background is his strength in film-style lighting for video, for interview sets and portraiture settings.

A life-long Texan, Raul is well-traveled, is bilingual English/Spanish, and really understands the nuances of shooting high-profile celebrities, or CEOs, or the average person. He has worked with all the major networks and many Fortune 500 companies.

Raul has shot for:
